

Walderslade Surgery
Sharing Your Data (Medical Information)

	Sharing on EMIS (GP Clinical System)	Medical Interoperability Gateway (MIG)	Summary Care Record	GP Extraction Services (GPES)	Risk Profiling/Risk Stratification
Purpose of sharing your information	Clinical Care	Your Healthcare	Your Healthcare	Research	Your Healthcare
Where it is shared	With you the patient	Local	National	England	Local
Details of medical information that will be shared	Full GP electronic patient record	Diagnoses, problems, allergies, medication, illnesses, procedures and investigations. Encounters, admissions and referrals	Medications, allergies and adverse reactions	Read coded information Medications, allergies, problems & results Information effectively anonymised unless otherwise stated	Using info from health records, a secure NHS computer system will look at any recent treatments in hospital or at this surgery, and any existing health conditions and alert the doctor to the likelihood of a possible future hospital admission. The information will be seen only by qualified health workers involved in the patient care.
Storage of medical information	Data is not extracted and stored elsewhere Access to clinical system for real time look up by patient	Data is not extracted and stored elsewhere Access to clinical system for real time look up by other healthcare professionals (HCP)	Central Database (data is extracted and stored elsewhere)	Central Database (data is extracted and stored elsewhere)	Data is extracted, then returned to practice in report format
How your medical information is accessed	Secure log in Legitimate relationship smartcard (used by HCPs)	Secure log in Legitimate relationship smartcard (used by HCPs) Patient permission	Legitimate relationship smartcard (used by HCPs)	Secure login Data extraction	Secure login Data extraction
How do you share your medical information	Complete access to medical records consent form Available on request	The GP clinical system is switched on to allow local organisations access. The healthcare professional must seek explicit consent at the point of accessing the GP system	Everyone has a summary care record uploaded to the NHS database unless chosen to opt out. You can choose to opt out of the scheme by completing a form and bringing it to the surgery.	This GP extraction service (GPES) collects information from GP clinical systems in England and forms part of the Health and Social Care Information Centre's (HSCIC) GP collection service	Information collected from GP Clinical and Hospital systems This practice takes part in this NHS service